1. Violations of the grazing permit, which shall be cause for cancellation of the permit, are as follows:
 - a) Failure to comply with all provisions on the range unit permit.
 - b) Failure to comply with range improvement stipulations attached to the permit.
 - c) Failure to pay Tribal or B.I.A. grazing fee, or other associated fees owed to the Tribe or B.I.A., on or before the annual due date.
 - d) Chronic abuse of established regulations, such as trespass, overstocking, and/or unauthorized hay cutting.
 - e) Falsification of ownership shall be grounds for cancellation of the permit or immediate revocation of the pasturing authorization and will be reported to the B.I.A.
 - f) Failure to allow Tribal Members to hunt within the range unit.
 - g) Range unit permittee(s) are prohibited from charging anyone to hunt on land within their grazing permit.
 - h) Falsification of residency shall be grounds for cancellation of the range unit permit.
 - i) Permittee(s) convicted of Lacey Act violations involving Tribal lands.
 - j) That any Permittee who is convicted (in Tribal, State or Federal Courts) for dealing, distributing, manufacturing or trafficking methamphetamine and/or any narcotic drug, including any substance containing fentanyl, opium, heroin, isonipecaine, amidone, isoamidone, ketobemidone, lysergic acid diethylamide, coca leaves, any opiate, or any substance, compound, or derivative of a controlled substance shall automatically have their grazing permit canceled for themselves and whomever else may be on the permit.

The proposed amendment to Ordinance 71 – Grazing will be published via West River Eagle Newspaper, CRST Tribal Secretary's Office Facebook Page, CRST Website, the CRST App and KIPR Radio.
