The blue represents the thunderclouds above the world where live the thunder birds who control the four winds. The rainbow is for the Cheyenne River Sioux people who are keepers of the Most Sacred Calf Pipe, a gift from the White Buffalo Calf Maiden. The eagle feathers at the edges of the rim of the world represent the spotted eagle who is the protector of all Lakota. The two pipes fused together are for unity. One pipe is for the Lakota, the other for all the other Indian Nations. The yellow hoops represent the Sacred Hoop, which shall not be broken. The Sacred Calf Pipe Bundle in red represents Wakan Tanka – The Great Mystery. All the colors of the Lakota are visible. The red, yellow, black and white represent the four major races. The blue is for heaven and the green for Mother Earth.

PLEASE CALL 811 BEFORE YOU DIG!Not only is it required, it's the Law!

Know what's below... there may be more than roots underground. All sorts of utility lines, pipes and cables could be buried on your property. Shallow digging such as planting a bush or installing a fence can result in service interruptions to you and your neighborhood. To avoid costly damages, call at least two (2) days before digging. The affected local utility companies will send a locator to your property, free of charge. Thank You ☺
